SUPPLEMENT

ORIGIN

25X1X6

1. The Rumanian Government has appointed a committee, consisting of Prime Minister Petru Groza of the Plowman's Front, Minister of Foreign Affairs Gheorghe Tatarescu of the National Liberal (Dissident) Party, Minister of Labor and Social Insurance Lotar Radaceanu, and Minister of National Economy Gheorghe Gheorghiu-Dej of the Communist Party, to allocate diplomatic posts among the various coalition parties in a planned personnel reshuffle.

25X1A6a [REDACTED] comment: This committee is evidently a replacement for a similar one which functioned before the reorganization of Groza's cabinet on 29 November 1946.)

2. The departure of approximately 100 recent appointees has been been delayed because of the lack of foreign currencies.
3. Emil Bodnaras, Communist chief of the Rumanian secret police, is expected to eliminate some of the "undesirable" appointees by refusing security clearance.
